about this case?

Q Do you know anything about an episode at the hospital where your mother was operated on?

A Yes.

Q When was your mother operated on?

A In February, 1922.

Q And that was the February 1922 preceding the killing, and did you visit your mother at the hospital?

A Yes.

Q And were you there one day when Mr. and Mrs. Hall called on her?

A No, sir.

Q How long after did you come there?

A I went quite frequently.

Q Well, when did you learn of Dr. Hall and Mrs. Hall having called on your mother?

A When mother came home.

Q What did you learn had occurred?

A I learned - -

MR. PFEIFFER: I object to that. That is clearly inadmissible, at least as to the form in which the question is asked. It may be hearsay.

MR. SIMPSON: It would be very lovely if he would conduct my examination for me, but I am trying to do it. It is true, at a trial this evidence would be
